This fluid has been qualified in accordance with Allison Transmission Engineering Specification TES-228. Accordingly, ATD must be notified of any changes in crude source origin, method of refining, and/or composition or concentration of the additive system used in blending of this fluid. Changes in formulation may require either partial or complete retest at the discretion of Allison Transmission Division. Failure to inform ATD of changes in formulation may lead to disqualification and approval nullification.

It is mandatory that the above C4 Approval Number appear on all marked product containers or container labels.

Sincerely,
